

SCOTTISH TALES & more

A selection of tales with a Celtic flavour performed by Kaitrin McMullan (storyteller) & Anna Bowen (Fiddler extraordinaire). A blend of music, stories, poetry and laughter guaranteed to chill the spine, raise your hair and tickle your ribs! Stories will be selected from below, and copies available after the performance

Footloose and Fancy-free based on a traditional tale in "More Ready-to-tell-tales", ed. D. Holt & B. Mooney, pub. August House 2000.

My love is like a red, red rose song by Robbie Burns

Donald sew those trousers! Based on a traditional tale in "Ghosts and Goblins" by R. Manning-Sanders, pub. Methven Books 1968

Annie MacDonald tricks the King of the Fairies Trad. Tale adapted

Robert Bruce and the spider based on "The spider and the King" by C. Krueger pub: Shortland 1992

The Scottish housewife and the fairies retold in "Favourite Fairy Tales told in Scotland" by V. Haviland, pub. Beech Tree Books 1995

Connor O'Connor based on trad. tale retold by C. DeFelice in "The dancing skeleton" pub. Macmillan

The Glass Cupboard by Terry Jones, in "Fairy Tales and Fantastic Stories" pub. Pavilion Books, 1997

String stories original tales based on Cats Cradle figures

Selkie story a traditional legend from Scotland, retold by D. Williamson in "Tales of the seal people" pub. Canongate Press, 1992

Copyright: K. McMullan, 305 Malvern St., DUNEDIN. Ph. 03 467 9550 email: kaitrin@xtra.co.nz